

Delta Iota Chapter Programs and Service Projects 2019 – 2022

Charity Newsies, 4300 Indianola Ave., Columbus, Oh 43214
Providing new clothing for school children in need since 1907
“No child should be kept from school due to inadequate clothing.”
www.charitynewsies.org

Dr. Asma Mobin-Uddin, pediatrician, clinical bioethicist, and award winning children’s author, “Growing Up Muslim In Ohio” asmamu@columbus.rr.com

Refugee and Migrant Children in Our Local Schools, Dublin Scioto High School Teachers, Jim Schafer, jim_schafer@icloud.com, Kyle Hildebrandt, and Matt Cubberly, spoke about the challenges and rewards of working with immigrant and migrant students from a wide variety of backgrounds.

Jeri-Diehl-Cusack, offers presentations on over 35 historical topics. Discussions on Eleanor and Franklin Roosevelt are her specialty. She enjoys teaching lifelong learning classes and sharing her programs throughout Ohio. Jeri dedicates her volunteer efforts to the Central Ohio Chapter of the Alzheimer’s Association. jdcshareshistory@gmail.com 614-581-5348

Riverside Hospital, Ohio Health Speakers’ Bureau, Coordinator, Andrew Hardy, Ohio Health External Affairs Manager, andrew.hardy@ohiohealth.com, arranges speakers on a wide variety of topics. Our excellent presenter: Rick Gehlbach, of the Ohio Health Employee Assistance Program, “Mental Health and Resiliency” (Derrick.Gehlbach@ohiohealth.com)

Teacher Rachel Thompson (rthompson@mplsd.org) and her highly successful, autistic son, Ben Thompson, spoke with us on “Autism in the Classroom.”

Rebecca Psigoda, founder of Infinite Possibilities, and creator of educational programs, author, and inspirational speaker. LMT_22@yahoo.com
www.rebeccapsigoda.com

Tim Conrad, Ph.D., Speaker, Teacher, Coach and Officer Don Stanko, “Digital Danger, Drawing the Line with Social Media.” Trends in teen and tween social media use, newest digital dangers, digital parenting tips. tim@drtimconrad.com 614-314-7690 (This program was from 2016, but of course, still so relevant.)

Shirley Brooks-Jones, “9/11 and Beyond” sbrooksindex@aol.com
14-761-9637 The Day the World Came to Town, by Jim Defede, Broadway Show: Come from Away

Freedom a la Cart, a nonprofit organization that empowers survivors of human trafficking. Our speakers, Bekah and Grace, delivered delicious box lunches from the Freedom a la Cart Café and shared information about life-changing employment and supportive services for the women and their children.
info@freedomalacart.org

Franklin County Children Services

Speaker, Chuck Cochran, FCCS Volunteer Coordinator
Comfort and Care Duffel Bags Project for teens in foster care.
Non-Emergency Number: 614-229-7100

Kinship Care, Clintonville Beechwold Community Resource Center,
Louanne Zipfel, Social Worker, Outreach Worker
614-268-3539, ClintonvilleCRC.org

My Very Own Blanket, Founder, Jessica Hollins, located at 407 West Main, Westerville, Ohio 614-530-3327, info@myveryownblanket.org
Providing comfort and hope to children in foster care throughout the state and beyond. Such a great story to hear from Jessica herself! Anyone, anywhere can get involved with easy-to-do blanket-making. Kits available.

Connie Conaway, former assistant superintendent, Hilliard City Schools, spoke to us on a number of topics including her experiences fostering children, volunteering at hospice, and her work with the Fuzzy Paws Rescue Organization.

Upcoming programs: The Dolly Parton Ohio Imagination Library project, Lifeline Organ Donation, Life Care Alliance, Adaptive Sports Connection.