

For Delta Kappa Gamma-

A red rose grows, clear and bold of hue
Speaks of courage, too.
It reaches fullest bloom, then fades away,
Not to oblivion-
But to enrich those who come another day.

For Delta Kappa Gamma-

A candle burns, and sheds a sweet soft glow
Outlines objects near
And companions, who are dear,
It gently fades away, having made its own sweet glow
And brightening well the portion where it stood
Before it went away.

To these who, like the rose,

Did reach their fullest bloom/ then went away-
Who, like the candle,
Lit their portion well with loving light-
We bow in reverence,
And hold in memory for all time
Their courage and their glow

For Delta Kappa Gamma.

A PLEDGE TO THE FOUNDERS

(Copies of this should be given to each member)

" We pledge to promote the interest of all educators everywhere;
To cooperate with those of other nations in their quest for truth;
We pledge to do all in our power
To create a true understanding
Of the values given to us,
And convey those to the young
By thought and deed, as well as spoken word.
We pledge to be true to ourselves, and others
For each is bound to each as brother.
With this faith in one another
We shall win for aye."

Taken from "This Is Our Heritage,"
A ceremony honoring the Founders
Emma Neal Boggess, Delta Chapter
Alpha Phi State
Adapted by Alpha Delta State
Membership Committee 2004